Feast Of Flowers 1st – 3rd July

Can you help in any of the following:-

1. Baking cakes - these can be done ahead of time as there is room in the freezer in the back kitchen. Please label them for Feast, and of course the type of cake.
2. Stewarding and Refreshments Rotas. The sheets for these will be in the porch as from Sunday, so sign up for what you can do. Also please consider helping at other churches.
3. We will need help clearing the church on the evening of Tuesday 28 June.
4. Help will be needed to tidy church and get things ready for welcoming visitors on Friday 1 July probably from about 10.30 am.

Ruth & Emma Pocock and Beki & Millie Birch have formed a team to undertake a fund-raising event. The event is the Sparkle Walk and it takes place in a few weeks' time on the Dronfield bypass which they close overnight.

Please support The Ultra Unit (team name chosen by Emma & Millie)! They are fundraising for Ashgate Hospice on JustGiving through the following link. https://www.justgiving.com/team/Ultraunit?utm\_source=Sharethis&utm\_medium=team&utm\_content=Ultraunit&utm\_campaign=pfp-email&utm\_term=19ea424d03074346930092ca61dda81a

JustGiving sends your donation straight to Ashgate Hospice and automatically reclaims Gift Aid if you are a UK taxpayer, so your donation is worth even more. Thank you for your support!

On June 11th Iain McVicar died after a long battle with cancer. He was the son of one of our previous ministers, Neil Mcvicar and Iain had been desperately ill with cancer since late 2021.

He was born in Calcutta where his parents were missionaries, and had a brilliant medical career ending at Queens Medical Centre Nottingham where he was a consultant surgeon.

Ian leaves behind his wife Helen (a doctor) and three daughters. The eldest got married a week ago, the second got engaged this week and the youngest one is still at college. Iain was 63 and looking forward to a well-earned retirement. A tragic end to a life of service.

Thought for the Week 19th June

Psalm 71 has been brought to my attention recently. Firstly, in the context of Everyday Supernatural, where it meant such a lot to Andy, one of the authors, and secondly, in the daily reading app The Bible in One Year. The Psalm talks about God being a protector, rock of safety, fortress, the righteous one, the avenger, the one who ransoms, and, as we sung on 5th June, incomparable!

Through the pandemic, God has been all these things to me and so much more. He is indeed worthy of praise. Do get your Bible now and read the Psalm for yourself. It says it so much better than I can.

The thing for me lately has been getting back into life and trusting God as we resume doing things which have become so alien, like going into a restaurant or a theatre. It was surprisingly difficult to work out where to park in Sheffield, where we had not been for over two years, and then to go into the City Hall to a concert which had been delayed two years as well. My friend in Scotland said that the pandemic had made her old before her time and I can identify with that. We have stayed in and become much less brave as if we were much older than our age.

But Psalm 71 addresses that. We can ask for protection and health wherever we are in life. God has cared for us since we were born. We can never stop praising him, declaring his glory all day long. He still helps us in our old age, he doesn't abandon us. He has taught us from our earliest childhood, and won't abandon us when we are old and grey. Like the psalmist, I want to go on proclaiming his power to a new generation and to praise him with music, shouting for joy and singing his praises. It is not easy, I get that. I think many of us are still struggling with shock and sorrow at the onslaught of the covid virus. We feel we should 'feel better' now it is 'over', but we struggle with depression and discouragement and just plain fear. We have lost our social confidence and ability to talk to people.

Just remember however young or old you are or feel, God is faithful to his promises. He will lift us up from the depths of the earth and restore us to even greater honour and comfort us once again. Just seek his face, remember the wonderful things he has done and ask him to help you proclaim his power. Keep hoping for his help, he will not disappoint; praise him more and more, and he will lift your heart and spirit, and he will restore you to life again.

PS read Psalm 71 for yourself and ask God for his special word for you from it!
