Thought for the Week

New Year Resolution

Did you make any new year resolutions? Have you kept them? According to AI, nearly half are abandoned by the end of January, less than 20% kept for the year.

Last Sunday was our rededication Sunday. During the service we renewed our vows as a church and as individuals: I am no longer my own but Yours. Your will not mine be done in all things, wherever You may place me, in all that I do and in all that I may endure; when there is work for me and when there is none; when I am troubled and when I am at peace. Your will be done when I am valued and when I am disregarded; when I find fulfilment and when it is lacking; when I have all things and when I have nothing, I willingly offer all I have and am to serve you, as and where you choose.

Glorious and blessed God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, You are mine and I am Yours. May it be so for ever. Let this covenant now made on earth be fulfilled in heaven.... Amen.

This is a reminder that following Christ does not guarantee an easy life, after all Jesus went to the Cross!, but we make the commitment to follow regardless. Let us fully commit to Him, not just for January or even for the year, but for eternity.

PDCGS

Peak District Christian Golf Society

Is there any budding golfers 🎾 looking for a game?

PDCGS is a Society made up of 30 members who are church going Christian golfers 🎏 of all levels.

We meet once a month through the year - except Dec and Jan - and play a variety of courses throughout Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire. A day consists of a round of golf and a meal - great golf, great fellowship and a lot of support - there is no judgement and if you have a bad day, you get loving support.

If you are interested, you can try it for 2 sessions before joining - prices are reasonable and membership is only £20 for the year.

Mike Coates is Captain of the Society and would be happy to take you along as his guest for a couple of sessions

Covenant Prayer

I am no longer my own but yours.
Your will, not mine, be done in all things,
wherever you may place me,
in all that I do and in all that I may endure;
when there is work for me and when there is none;
when I am troubled and when I am at peace.
Your will be done
when I am valued and when I am disregarded;
when I find fulfilment and when it is lacking;
when I have all things, and when I have nothing.
I willingly offer all I have and am to serve you,
as and where you choose.
Glorious and blessed God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
you are mine and I am yours.
May it be so for ever.
Let this covenant now made on earth be fulfilled
in heaven.
Amen
